

LYRICS TO THE “HYMNS OF PRAISE ALBUM”

Title: A Hymn of Praise,

Composer: Sir Uwem J. Useh

Tune: Mfoniso

1. We bring to Thee, A Hymn of praise,
Our Omnipotent Most High God,
Like the Angel, we have come to sing Thy Majesty,
In one accord, we bow to Thee, Our Everlasting King;
For Thou art good, and Thy mercies endureth forever.

2. Sing unto God, a hymn of praise,
For all the he has done for us,
Raise the pitch and make it pleasant, purer unto God,
In unity, give unto Thee a sacrifice of praise;
For He is good, and His mercies endureth forever.

3. Reset my mind and tune my voice,
To join in the celestial praise,
Unto Thee my Redeemer, my Comforter, and Friend,
In harmony, we offer Thee, this ode to joy with thanks;
Yes, Thou art good, and Thy mercies endureth forever.

2. Title: Jesus is the Answer,
Composer: Sir Uwem J. Useh
Tune: Sir Uwem Useh

1. In every sorrow, every pain,
When life's dark clouds bring endless rain,
One truth remains, forever clear:
Jesus, the answer, always near.
2. When doubts arise and fears consume,
And all around seems dark and gloom,
Look up to Him, our guiding light,
Jesus, the answer, shining bright.
3. In wretchedness and misery,
He brings us close, His sanctuary,
Through every storm, He's ever true,
Jesus, the answer, strong for you.
4. No earthly power, no mortal hand,
Can shield us well with grace so grand,
In every need, in every quest,
Jesus, the answer, brings us rest.

Mount Zion's gates shall open wide,
For those redeemed by Christ who died.

And join the everlasting throng.

Beneath the still and frozen air,
God's wonders wait, beyond compare.

Speaks peace that storms cannot surpass;
Its flicker warms the soul with cheer,

And see the wonders God bestows;
Through snowy fields and starry skies,
The gift of Christ before us lies.

10. Title: The Stars that Still the Earth

Composer: Sir Uwem J. Useh

Tune: Sir Uwem Useh

1. Upon the hills so calm and cold,
A star arose, both bright and bold;
It pierced the night with heaven's grace,
And stilled the world in silent space.
2. No trumpet called, no king's decree,
Yet shepherds knelt on bended knee;
The flocks stood still beneath the glow,
As heaven touched the earth below.
3. The star proclaimed the wondrous plan,
Of peace on earth, goodwill to man;
Its light still shines through time and strife,
To call the weary soul to life.
4. O, let us lift our eyes tonight,
And find the star that gives us light;
Its beams invite the world to see,
The gift of love, eternally.
